

EMPLOYERS

Top 10 Ways to Get Involved

Be an advocate for career and technical education

Participate in school board meetings

Provide tours for students, parents, educators and administrators

Invite your school administrator to breakfast

Support programs like Skills USA

Tour local high school career and technical education area

Serve on advisory committees at schools

Provide job expectations, current needs and salary information

Speak at school

Provide work experiences for students